

CHEW VALLEY ARTS TRAIL 2010 - LETTER AND APPLICATION FORM

Once again, we are delighted to invite artists living, or working on their art/craft in the Chew Valley, (as shown on the 2009 brochure map), to open their homes and studios or other suitable venues between 10 am and 6 pm on Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th OCTOBER 2010 for the Eighth Chew Valley Arts Trail. (With optional previews on Friday 8th October to be arranged by venues individually).

Fees: The fee for taking part in the Trail will be £45.00 per artist exhibiting four or more items of work. This has once again been kept to a minimum. The cost is to cover administration, brochure production and printing and general publicity, posters, signs etc. We will include a 15 word paragraph and one picture per full paying participant in the Trail brochure if space and funds permit, and the style of brochure will be subject to numbers taking part in the Trail. In the case of a venue with a large number of participants, it may be necessary to limit the number of photographs and entries in the brochure. Should this scenario arise, the venue holder will be asked to choose which of their participants should be included. The fee must accompany a signed application form, to be submitted by the closing date, for each person.

For exhibitors showing up to three items of work as a guest at someone else's venue, the cost will be £8.00 per item (Max £24), which will not include any entry in the brochure. The fee must accompany a signed application form, to be submitted by the closing date, for each person.

Insurance: Those taking part are reminded that they do so at their own risk, as they and their venues remain autonomous and are therefore responsible for their own public liability and other insurance, the safety of their visitors and sales of their work. Chew Valley Arts Trail Organisers and co-ordinators shall not be held responsible for any public liability or loss, theft or damage to any work exhibited at venues. We have to point out that your household insurance policy may not be valid during trail opening hours and may not cover the artwork exhibited in your house. Venue holders should ensure that everyone exhibiting with them is aware of this.

A public liability policy will however be taken out to cover the Chew Valley Arts Trail itself and if you need any information on what that will cover please speak to Sandy or Carol.

Copyright: Copyright remains the property of the artist. All work exhibited in the Chew Valley Arts Trail MUST BE THE ARTIST/PARTICIPANT'S OWN WORK and must not contravene copyright laws.

To qualify to take part, you must either live or work on your art/craft within the parameters of the map on the Chew Valley Arts Trail Brochure 2009 or regularly i.e., not less than 6 times a year, attend an art/craft studio, class or workshop in the area of the Arts Trail brochure map. Ask your tutor to sign this form. The organisers reserve the right to refuse entry.

Participating artists signing and returning the entry form will be agreeing to these terms without reservation.

We hope you will enjoy taking part and play your part in making it a success. We will let you know if help is needed and when it is time for you to collect signage etc. You can contact Sandy if you have any questions.

Please return the signed and dated application form below, together with the relevant fee, an image or a selection of images on CD at 300dpi, (a good photograph can be sent if no access to a computer) and an S.A.E if applicable. You can send jpeg images at 300dpi by email to Sandy at Tintinna@aol.com but please write Chew Valley Arts Trail in the subject box and send on the same day as your application form. (The S.A.E. is for the return of your photo/CD and a receipt if requested). Please make cheques payable to "Chew Valley Arts Trail" (no cash thank you). Application forms should arrive by April 30th 2010 at the latest. We are very happy to receive them earlier:
